Blues back in the hunt

St. Louis beats Red Wings 6-1 for first win of series

BY R.B. FALLSTROM
AP Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS — After stuffing the St. Louis Blues for two games, Dominik Hasek looked like an ordinary goaltender.

Keith Tkachuk had his first playoff hat trick as the Blues put a huge dent in Hasek's aura of invincibility, beating the Detroit Red Wings 6-1 Tuesday night.

"They were scoring goals, that was the difference," Hasek said. "A lot of their shots went in. What can I say?"

The Blues shaved their second-round series deficit to 2-1. They got 27 saves from Brent Johnson and will try to even the series Thursday night in St. Louis.

"Hey, we just were getting too many quality scoring chances to not cash in at some point," said Scott Mellanby. "But Thursday's going to be that much harder."

"They've got a lot of great players and Hasek's going to bounce back."

Red Wings coach Scotty Bowman could remember only one worse playoff result in his career, an 8-0 loss against an opponent he couldn't remember.

"It was a poor publicity score for sure," Bowman said. "It's a bad score."

We're not happy about it."

Tkachuk, who led the Blues with 38 goals during the regular season, has four goals in the postseason. He scored once in each period, putting deflections past Hasek in the first and second periods, then converting Pavol Demitra's setup on a 3-on-2 break in the third.

The game was delayed for several minutes as fans tossed hats onto the ice, and the Blues were warned they'd be penalized for delay of game.

"I was begging for them to stop," Tkachuk said. "I didn't want us to get a penalty."

The power play also came to life for the Blues, who ended an 0-for-10 drought with a pair of goals. Mellanby scored on a two-man advantage in the first period, and Tkachuk's second goal came on a power play for St. Louis, which was 2-for-5 overall. The Red Wings' power play was 0-for-6.

"They capitalized and we didn't," Wings forward Darren McCarty said. "We had some good chances, we just didn't get it done, and they did."

Demitra had three assists and a short-handed goal, and Chris Pronger had three assists for the Blues, who treated Hasek rudely.

Hasek stopped 58 of 60 shots in the first two games, including his eighth career playoff shutout in Game 1. But the Blues built confidence by scoring a pair of third-period goals in a 3-2 Game 2 loss, and they scored twice on eight first-period shots in Game 3.

Tkachuk's third goal at 1:53 of the third made it four goals in only 15 shots against Hasek. Demitra's fourth goal of the playoffs — on the 16th shot — chased Hasek at 9:26 as Manny Legace went the rest of the way.

Hasek kept reporters waiting after the game because he was making up for the exercise he missed.

"I had to ride the bike a little bit because I didn't even sweat," Hasek said. "I gave up five goals. I wasn't really busy at all, however. Every third shot was a goal and it's a little disappointing, but I feel better after I ride the bike."

Legace gave up a goal on the first shot he faced, with Jamal Mayers scoring unassisted, making it three goals on three shots in the period for St. Louis. Rookie Pavel Datsyuk got his second goal of the playoffs off Brett Hull's feed for the Red Wings, who started fast with a 6-1 shots edge in the first five minutes of the game. But the Blues carried play much of the rest of the way.

Varble said the Lady Hawks' desire to beat Winchester got her adrenaline pumping, and that led her to both her fastest 400 split of the year, and the minor unpleasantness that followed.

"When the meet started, I was automatically nervous," Varble said. "The 4 x 400 had been the big talk at school, because that's what we thought the meet would come down to."

Varble said she doesn't get sick after every race — just the big ones.

"(Getting sick) was not fun, but I feel better now," Varble said. "When you really push yourself, that's going to happen — especially to me."

As the favorite going in, Winchester's team was understandably disappointed.

"Of course, they're very upset," Moore said. "The majority of them started crying. And now I'm going to cry."

Moore struggled to fight back the tears, but said she and her team had nothing to be upset about.

When told she just missed the WIVC record, Paslay bowed her head in disappointment and let out a frustrated sigh.

"I didn't know that," said Paslay, whose personal best is 5-4. "My steps kind of felt off today, and I started in the grass, which was a little wet and muddy. That may have slowed me down just a little bit."

Paslay will go for her third consecutive trip to state on Saturday at the Carrollton Sectional. Also, there will be North Greene's Ashleigh Hull, who will be going for her fourth consecutive trip to state in the hurdles.

Hull won both the 100 and 300 hurdle events on Tuesday, but it wasn't easy. After running the 400 and the 800 medley relay, Hull said she got

PUBLIC NOTICE
Notice of Change in Schedule
To the Patrons of Ameritech Illinois

Ameritech Illinois hereby gives notice to the public that we filed with the Illinois Commerce Commission on April 23, 2002 a proposed tariff page to mirror FCC Transmittal No.
1289 issued February 26, 2002
and effective March 7, 2002.

Transmittal No. 1289 removed Direct Digital Service (DDS) from FCC
No. 2 Tariff. DDS had been grandfathered under Transmittal No.
1192 effective February 26, 1999
and IL Advice No. 7051 effective March 31, 1999. There have been no DDS customers as of September 2001.

A copy of the change in schedule may be inspected by any interested party at any business office of this Company in Illinois.

Customers should be advised that the Commission may alter or amend the rates or conditions of service after hearings held pursuant to 83 Illinois Administrative Code 200 and may increase or decrease individual rates in amounts other than those requested by the Company.

All parties interested in this matter may obtain information with respect thereto either directly from this Company or by addressing the Chief Clerk of the Illinois Commerce Commission, 527 East Capitol Avenue, Springfield, Illinois 62794-9280.
